Kaua'i County Housing Agency offering free Fair Housing training in April

LĪHU'E – As part of National Fair Housing Month in April, the Kaua'i County Housing Agency and other state and county agencies will be providing free training opportunities for landlords and tenants to learn about the most current federal and state Fair Housing laws.

This year's training will be held virtually via Cisco Webex Meetings at the following schedule.

- April 7, 2022 – 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. – Fair Housing 101: An Overview
- April 14, 2022 – 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. – Disability, Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications, and Assistance Animals
- April 21, 2022 – 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. – Case Studies
- April 28, 2022 – 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. – Expert Panel (Question and Answer Session)

This year's Fair Housing Month theme is "Where I Live There Are Rainbows...And Fair Housing."

Experts from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Hawai'i Civil Rights Commission (HCRC), and Legal Aid Society of Hawai'i will present the most current information and answer questions regarding the most current Federal and State Fair Housing Laws. Various topics will be covered in each weekly session.

You may register for these free sessions electronically, starting immediately at
